Year 2 Autumn 2 – Red Hill Riches

Science	Geography	DT
-Living things move, grow, consume nutrients and reproduce. -Habitats are places where creatures live to provide food and shelter. -A simple food chain follows the direction of a food source.	-There are seven continents: Asia, Africa, North America, South America, Antarctica, Europe, and Australia. -The seas around the United Kingdom are North Sea, Irish Sea, English Channel -There are five named oceans: the Atlantic, Pacific, Indian, Arctic and the Southern (Antarctic) -Humans are having an impact on our environment by polluting the oceans.	- A chair is structured with a seat and secure legs - Some 3D shapes have more stability - Shapes can be fixed together using tabs - Structures must be stable to withstand weight - Structures should be tested to check stability
Music	RE	Computing
Genre: Jazz How does music help us make friends? Composing: Music to describe the story 'Sharing a shell' Composer study: Duke Ellington	- Recognise that stories of Jesus' life come from the Gospels - Give a clear, simple account of the story of Jesus' birth and why Jesus is important for Christians - Give examples of ways in which Christians use the story of the Nativity to guide their beliefs and actions at Christmas - Think, talk and ask questions about Christmas for people who are Christians and for people who are not - Decide what they personally have to be thankful for, giving a reason for their ideas.	- Identify examples of computers - Describe some uses of computers - Identify that a computer is a part of IT - Classify input and output devices. - Describe a simple process - Explain how I use digital devices for different activities - Recognise similarities between using digital devices and using non-digital tools - Suggest differences between using digital devices and using non-digital tools - Recognise different connections - Explain how messages are passed through multiple connections. - Discuss why we need a network switch - Recognise that a computer network is made up of a number of devices - Demonstrate how information can be passed between devices - Explain the role of a switch, server, and wireless access point in a network

		- Identify how devices in a network are connected together - Identify networked devices around me - Identify the benefits of computer networks
Indoor PE	PSHE	Outdoor PE
- Beginning to provide feedback using key words - Be proud of my work and confident to perform in front of others - Perform the basic gymnastic actions with some control and balance - Plan and repeat simple sequences of actions - Use directions and levels to make my work look interesting - Use shapes when performing other skills - Work safely with others and apparatus.	- Stereotypes - Why does bullying happen? - Standing up for myself and others - Diversity - Celebrating difference and still being friends	- Depend space on my court using the ready position - Describe how my body feels during exercise - Hit a ball over the net and into the court area - Throw accurately to a partner - Simple tactics to make it difficult for an opponent - Know how to score points and can remember the score - Show good sportsmanship when playing against an opponent.