

Year 3 Geography

How does my food travel from farm to fork?

Fair Trade

Cocoa

Glossary

Continents

large expanse of land that covers the world, Europe, Asia, Africa, North America, South America and Antarctica.

Trade

transfer of goods or services for money or another good

Fair Trade

trade between companies with developing countries where fair trade is made with the producers

Produce

make or manufacture a product

Export

send goods to another country for trade

Import

buy in goods from another country

Cocoa plantation

Banana plantation

Worcestershire fields for farming

Red Hill Riches

I know:

Fieldwork can be conducted by supermarket visits

Buying and selling things is called trade. Items are imported and exported.

Food is grown in Worcestershire.

Food is imported as it does not grow locally or within season.

Fair trade ensures trade around the world is done fairly

Some foods such as cocoa and coffee travel a long way to our plates.

Importing and exporting goods by ship