

10 house points:

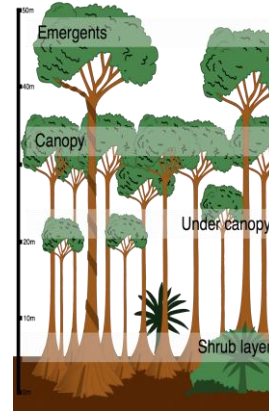

- ◆ Create a model of a rainforest or desert biome: Label key features, plants, and animals.
- ◆ Write a diary entry as an explorer discovering a rainforest or desert: Describe what you see, your challenges, and any wildlife encounters.
- ◆ Write and illustrate a children's story about a rainforest or desert animal, teaching readers about its habits and habitat.
- ◆ Write a story about a day in the life of a rainforest or desert animal: Describe how it finds food, stays safe, and navigates its environment.
- ◆ Research the effects of deforestation or desertification and create a poster explaining these processes and their impact on the environment.
- ◆ Research and create a simple recipe using ingredients commonly found in rainforest regions, such as tropical fruits or nuts. (Bonus point if you make it and share photos!)
- ◆ Conduct research into the flora or fauna found in either the rainforest or desert. You can choose how to present your research (PPT, poster, board etc.)

This half term's House Project is based upon our Geography learning of:

Rainforests and Deserts

Due in by Fri 18th December 2026

5 house points:

- ◆ Make a fact file on the Amazon Rainforest: Include information on its size, biodiversity, and importance to the global ecosystem.
- ◆ Design a traditional dwelling from a desert culture and explain its features suited for hot, arid conditions.
- ◆ Create a mini poster of desert survival tips: Explain strategies for finding water, shelter, and staying safe from extreme temperatures.
- ◆ Draw or paint a rainforest or desert sunrise or sunset, capturing the unique colours of each ecosystem.

3 house points

- ◆ Draw and label the layers of the rainforest (emergent layer, canopy, understory, forest floor).
- ◆ Create a desert landscape painting or drawing including native plants and animals.
- ◆ Research and list at least five unique animals from either a rainforest or desert environment, describing how they are adapted to survive in those conditions.
